Farewell sitting at Supreme Court

The Full Court of the Supreme Court of Western Australia will hold a special sitting this Friday, 28 June, to formally farewell Master Theo Bredmeyer CBE who is retiring after 11 years on the bench.

Master Bredmeyer joined the Supreme Court of Western Australia in 1990 after 25 years spent living in Papua New Guinea, including 10 years as a Judge of the Supreme Court of PNG.

Court proceedings to farewell Master Bredmeyer will start at 9.30am in Courtroom 1 at the Supreme Court building, Stirling Gardens.

Cameras will be permitted in the Court to film the proceedings but should be set up by 9.15am. Sound can be used, but no lighting is permitted. Please note that television cameras cannot be moved once proceedings begin.
