Extra Mediation Rooms Available

10 August 2012

The Supreme Court has two new mediation rooms available for hearing matters. The rooms are located on the 17th floor, 111 St Georges Tce, Perth. The rooms are large, with two adjacent 'break-out' rooms for parties to confer privately.

Parties and their advisors should attend the 15th floor for directions and access to the rooms.

Active mediation is a major function of the Supreme Court. The Court is responding to the demand for mediation by registrars as a means to achieving a just and sensible result for litigants.
